Frisco, Texas (August 16, 2022) — The PGA of America announced today that tickets for the 2023 KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship are now available for purchase. It will be the first Major Championship to be played at PGA Frisco, the new home of the PGA of America and Omni PGA Frisco Resort.

The KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship, the most historic and prestigious Major Championship in senior golf, will be contested May 24-28, 2023, on Fields Ranch East at PGA Frisco. The championship will bring the most accomplished senior golfers in the world to the area, including 2022 Senior PGA Champion Steven Alker.

“This is a historic moment for the PGA of America as we welcome one of the strongest fields in senior golf to the first event at our new home in Frisco,” said Jason Mengel, championship director of the 83rd KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship. “It’s an exciting time to be a golf fan in this community, and we are all looking forward to kicking off an unprecedented run of Major Championships with the 2023 KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship. Starting today, we are making ticket packages and volunteer opportunities available to the public to be a part of this inaugural championship at PGA Frisco.”

Approximately 1,500 volunteer positions are needed throughout the week to ensure the championship’s success. For more information about specific volunteer opportunities during the 83rd KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship, visit srgachampionship.com/volunteer.

Based on studies done around recent KitchenAid Senior PGA Championships, the anticipated positive Economic Impact to the host community could be upwards of $20 million.

Daily grounds ticket prices for the 2023 KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship range from $30 for Wednesday’s practice round, $45 for the first round on Thursday, $50 for Friday’s second round, and $55 for the final two rounds over the weekend. A Championship Grounds event-long ticket package starts at $205. All grounds tickets include access to grandstand seating, the PGA Shop, water at concession venues throughout the grounds, and other spectator services.

Premium Club tickets begin Thursday of championship week and will range from $550 to $650 for daily club tickets. Club tickets grant access to an open-air entertainment space and an outdoor viewing deck overlooking both the 16th and 17th holes. Club tickets also include a chef-inspired, all-inclusive culinary experience and open bar, executive restrooms, and preferred corporate parking.

Tickets can be purchased for the 83rd KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship at srgachampionship.com/tickets. Further details regarding traffic and parking plans will be released at a later date.

The PGA of America will offer complimentary tickets to military members and youth. As part of the PGA of America’s mission to grow the game of golf, children 17 years old and younger will be given free entry into the Championship when accompanied by an adult.

Military members and a guest will also receive free admission for a one-day pass. This includes Active Duty, Retirees, Veterans, Reserve and National Guard.

Proceeds from the 2023 KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship will benefit PGA

REACH, the charitable foundation of the PGA of America. PGA REACH aims to positively impact the lives of youth, military, and diverse populations by enabling access to PGA Professionals, PGA Sections, and the game of golf as a whole.

Ticket holders, volunteers and companies at the 2023 KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship will have priority access to offerings at future events at PGA Frisco, including the 2027 PGA Championship.

In addition to the KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship, Fields Ranch East at PGA Frisco will be home to an unprecedented cadence of championships, with 26 scheduled over a 13-year span, including two PGA Championships. Future championships to be held at PGA Frisco include the KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship in 2023 and 2029; the KPMG Women's PGA Championship in 2025 and 2031; and the PGA Championship in 2027 and 2034.
