In addition to ticket sales, Dallas Trinity FC announces head coach Pauline MacDonald.

MacDonald played for the Scotland Women's National Team and amassed over 60 international caps during her varied playing career. She then spent nearly 20 years in various coaching and development roles within the Scottish FA, most recently as head coach of Scotland's national under-17 women's team.

As one of eight teams in the new USL Super League, a Division I professional women's soccer league, Dallas Trinity FC is poised to help expand DFW's love for soccer and women's professional sports.

"We look forward to stepping into the Cotton Bowl and creating a captivating, inspiring, and thrilling atmosphere for our fans," said Charlie Neil, President, Dallas Trinity FC. "This city is ready for professional women's soccer and we are poised to deliver."

Dallas Trinity FC General Manager Chris Petrucelli and the Neil family, which owns and operates the team, continue to build the team roster and those announcements continue on social media.

Petrucelli is a two-time National Coach of the Year and 1995 NCAA Championship Coach. He was most recently the head coach of the professional women's soccer team, the Chicago Red Stars, from 2022-2023. Prior to coaching professional soccer, Petrucelli was the head coach for the SMU Mustangs' women's soccer team for 10 years (2012-2022), and was head coach at University of Texas at Austin's women's soccer team from 1999-2011, winning Big 12 Championships in 2006 and 2007.
